

This is a generic internal memo about office supplies.

We are considering switching vendors for printer paper and toner.

The committee will meet next month to discuss options.

No dates, codes, or numbers of any specific format are mentioned here beyond this sentence itself, which deliberately avoids anything that looks like a solicitation number, NAICS code, or set-aside category.